The Murphy Insurance Group Expands Bonding Capabilities

WAUNAKEE, WI – January 22, 2011 - The Murphy Insurance Group is proud to announce the addition of Liz Mosca as the newest member of the Bonding & Surety division. Liz Mosca comes to The Murphy Insurance Group with a high level of bonding & surety experience - having worked with over 500 of the largest contractors in Wisconsin, Illinois and Michigan.

August Felker, CEO of The Murphy Insurance Group, notes that "Liz is an exceedingly talented and hard working individual with a tremendous expertise in the bonding arena. As a result of the difficult economic conditions, we have consistently heard from our clients that bonding has become a leading obstacle to securing the most desirable project work. We are confident that our clients will benefit immediately from Liz's experience and creativity to produce winning results."

Founded in 1990, The Murphy Insurance Group is headquartered just outside of Madison, Wisconsin and is a leading independent insurance agency specializing in insuring individuals and small-to-mid-sized businesses. Our guiding philosophy is to offer fanatical customer service, industry leading insurance expertise, and a can-do approach to solving our clients' most challenging risk management issues.
